The annual meeting of the Stockholders of this company was held in the Custom House at noon to-day. R. F. Roberts in the chair, and A. C. Harmon, Secretary.

The reports of the officers were read showing that the company has been very fortunate, the total losses for the year being only $130, while within the five years of the existence of the company, the whole losses have been $1.317. It was determined to increase the risk from $3,000, the present amount, to $4,000, and no reduction is to be made on account of lightning rods on property.

The following Directors were then elected: -R. F. Roberts, F. E. Corbett, D. O. Munson, P. H. Troth, C. Lukens, J.; Brookes, C. F. Wilkins, V. Baker, D. P. Smith, C. Gilingham, G. B. Ives, B Canfield, and Geo. C. Round.

The meeting then adjourned.

At a meeting of the Directors R. F. Roberts was elected President of the company, A. C. Harmon, Secretary and Treasurer, R. F. Robers, V. Baker and D. P. Smith, the Executive Committee, and V. Baker, General Agent.

Police Report. - The following cases have been reported at police headquarters since Saturday's issue of the Gazette:

James Lucas, for disorderly conduct on the wharf, was discharged with a reprimand. George Lucas, for disorderly conduct, was fined and discharged.

Daniel White, for abusing A. White, both colored, was fined and discharged.

Beverly Washington, arrested on the charge of breaking into the house of Elizabeth Graham, both colored, was dismissed as the charge was not sustained, and the costs of the case assessed to complainant.

David Lomax, colored, for attempting to rob Robert Sent, was locked up in the station

EAST ALEXANDRIA RAILROAD.—The East Alexandria Railroad is progressing rapidly towards completion, seven hundred men are now at work upon it, and on Saturday last the work had been advanced from Biadensburg as far as Geesborro, to which point construction trains were running. The whole road will be completed and in running order, it is expected, within three weeks from this date. When finished the Southern mail boat will stop at Marbury's Point, opposite this city, its western terminus, for the accommodation of such passengers as may not desire to go through Washington. It is understood, too that when travel by the new route is opened, the B. & O. R. R. Company, who are building the road, will es tablish a ticket office in this city, and run trains from Marbury's Point, to connect with the trains running between Baltimore and Washington.

Annexation,-It is said that a meeting of the colored people will be held at the colored Old Fellows hall to-night, for the purpose of speechifying and passing resolutions in favor of amexing Alexandria to the District of Cobumbia. A meeting of some of the white people in the city and county, who are in favor of the same scheme, was held in Washington, at the office of Mr. O A. Stevens, week before

RELIGIOUS SERVICES YESTERDAY.-The weather, yesterday, was delightful, and large congregations were present at most of the obarches. Rev. H. Melville Jackson preached in Christ Church in the morning, Rev. Mr. Whittlesey in the First Presbyterian Church in the morning and Rev. Mr. Val-hant to the M. P. Church. The other pulpits were occupied by the resident elergy. The usual Sunday activities of the Young Men's Christian Association were well attended.

CHRIST CHURCH -There will be services at this church to-morrow afternoon at 4 o'clock, when the Rev. H. Chauncey Riley, D. D., will give an account of "The Church of Jesus in Mexico," and of the reformation now in progress in that country. Dr. Riley is a native of South America, and has been for four or five years connected with the movement above alluded to. He is a fervid and eloquent speaker, and his theme is one of intense interest to every Protestant.

FAIR GROUNDS .- The Committee of the Woodlawn Farmers' Club, for the purpose of determining upon a site for a proposed fair ground, met at the Custom House this evening, and after hearing the reports of the subcommittee and a statement from Mr. T. L. Sanborn, adjourned to meet on Friday next for the purpose of examining the lands of Messrs. Sanborn, Hunter, Swann and others, with a view of selecting a suitable place.

EXCITEMENT. - Considerable excitement was created on Royal street, near Queen, last Saturday night, and quite a crowd collected there by the rumor that a man living in that neigh-borhood had shot a woman. The report was incorrect, however, and was discovered to be so by constable John Gray, who entered the house, and found that a woman had been hurt, but by a broomstick which the man had thrown RETURNED. - A colored mau named John Bradshaw, who suddenly disappeared from here about five months ago, and whose prolonged and unaccountable absence induced his friends to believe that he had been drowned, reappeared in the flesh last Saturday, to the great astonishment of those who had mourned him as among the dead, having been, he said, on a visit to Philadelphia.

MARYLAND BOUNDARY QUESTION. -- GOV. Whyte, of Maryland, in his message to the Legislature of that State, now in session, says: "I regret to inform you that the commissioners (appointed by the act of 1868, chapter 370. and continued by the act of 1872, chapter 210) to meet similar commissioners appointed by the State of Virginia to settle and adjust the boundary line between the two States, have been last, but the attendance was so small that nothing was done.

unable to agree upon any compact fixing and establishing such a line. The Maryland commissioners have been active and diligent in the discharge of their duties, and lost no opportunity which effered to adjust the disputed line upon terms of honorable compromise, but the de-mands of either side were so wide apart that no adjustment could be reached. Their report in full with accompanying documents, will be laid before you by the Secretary of State. I can recommend no action on your part until the authorities of Virginia shall determine to bring a suit at law or appoint a new commission with better hopes of success in a final agreement between the States.
